

Mac And Rory Grammar Stories

(Are There Any Swans?)

There are!

Mac has made an adventure trail for Rory and their friends.

There's a map for this trail! That's so cool, Mac.

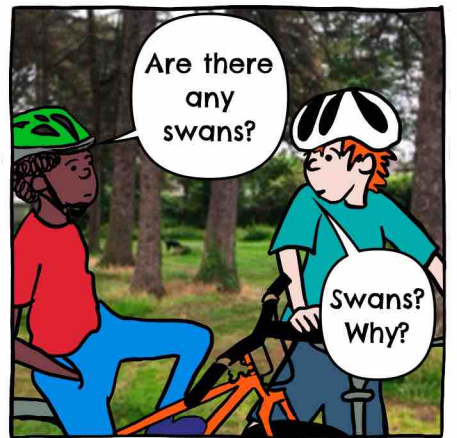

OK, there is a river here. You have to cross it.

There are hills here. Be careful! There are gates over there. That's the finish.

Are there any swans?

I just don't like swans, OK?

10 minutes later, Eva and Paul have finished... but where's Rory?

Oh-oh. There's Rory, at last. There's blood on his knee.

I was cycling over a hill and there was a big rock!

And then there were two angry swans!

So, what will we do now?

There's a new ice cream store in the village. Let's go!
